

Who we are: PHN/MCAH branch strives to promote and maintain wellness for all Riverside County residents through unique expertise and leadership of Public Health Nursing/Maternal, Child and Adolescent Health.

How we serve: Addressing needs related to health inequities experienced by specific subpopulations, working with all relevant partners to drive initiatives including those that explicitly address “upstream” social determinants of health.

The many that benefit:

10,043

home visits

13,586

client encounters.

5 evidence based/evidence informed
programs.

95% compliancy rate
for children on psychotropic medication.

79% hospital stays
decreased for HELP-PLUS participants.

900 doctors, nurses
and medical staff received perinatal mood and anxiety disorder educational flip charts.

HEALTHY LIVING PROGRAM

2 out of 3

help participants
reported fewer physician visits in 2016.

BLACK INFANT HEALTH

Riverside County
had the highest number of recruitments and enrollments of the 17 BIH sites across California.

NURSE-FAMILY PARTNERSHIP

9 in 10
children

in the NFP program had their required
vaccinations by 24
months of age.

SAFE CARE

93% of clients

report an excellent
learning experience.

CAL-LEARN

274 teens

served per month
on average.